1                   THE CLERK: 03-C-6822, Kestrel Holdings vs. Learjet,
2 Inc., motion.

3                   THE COURT: Good morning, everybody.

4                   CHORUS: Good morning, your Honor.

5                   THE COURT: Okay, for plaintiff who do we have here
6 this morning?

7                   MS. WRONA: I'm Pat Wrona, W-r-o-n-a, I'm local 8 counsel.

9                   THE COURT: Let me have that again?

10                  MS. WRONA: W-r-o-n-a, on behalf of Kestrel Holding, 11 as local counsel.

12                  THE COURT: Okay.

13                  MR. JUSTIS: Good morning, your Honor, Gary Justis,
14 counsel for Kestrel Holdings I. J-u-s-t-i-s.

15                  MR. DUFFIELD: Good morning, your Honor, Bruce
16 Duffield with Lord, Bissell & Brook on behalf of defendants
17 Learjet and Bombardier.

18                  THE COURT: Okay, let me have that name again?

19                  MR. DUFFIELD: You bet. It's Bruce Duffield,
20 D-u-f-f-i-e-l-d.

21                  THE COURT: Okay.

22                  MR. DUFFIELD: I serve as local counsel for the 23 defendants.

24                  THE COURT: Okay.

25                  MR. DUFFIELD: And with me is Ron Sprague, who is

1 lead counsel on this, and whose appearance I filed a few days
2 ago and the pro hac vice petition was also filed.

3 THE COURT: Well, Mr. Sprague, welcome.

4 MR. SPRAGUE: Good morning, your Honor.

5 THE COURT: You come all the way from Texas.

6 MR. SPRAGUE: I did, your Honor.

7 THE COURT: Great state of Texas. Well, I see this
8 interesting motion before me, Plaintiff's Motion to Compel
9 Discovery. As I understand this motion, it seeks three 10 categories of documents under a subpoena from an expert
11 witness. Is that where we are?

12 MR. JUSTIS: That is correct, your Honor.

13 THE COURT: Okay. Then go ahead. Who is going to 14 present this? And I'm going to give -- Let me ask, Mr.
15 Sprague, Mr. Duffield, you two fellows ready to argue this
16 motion?

17 MR. SPRAGUE: Yes, your Honor.

18 THE COURT: Okay. Did you submit any -- It's not
19 necessary, but did you submit a reply, a response?

20 MR. SPRAGUE: A response was filed, your Honor, and 21 my pro hac vice motion was filed. I'm assuming the Court will 22 grant that so I can speak.

23 THE COURT: All right, well, I haven't seen the 24 response. Do you have a copy of it? I'll read it now.

25 MR. SPRAGUE: I do, your Honor.

1 MR. DUFFIELD: I do. I'm surprised --

2 THE COURT: No, when did you file it?

3 MR. DUFFIELD: It was filed last Wednesday.

4 THE CLERK: Probably in the (inaudible).

5 MR. DUFFIELD: Here's a file-stamped copy.

6 THE COURT: Okay, thank you, counsel. Thank you so
7 much. If you would bear with me a moment, let me go back and 8 read this. Why don't we all take a small break. It's not that
9 too long a document. I'll read this and then we'll be prepared
10 to argue the motion.

11 (Recess taken.)

12 THE CLERK: 03-C-6822, Kestrel Holdings vs. Learjet.

13 THE COURT: Okay. Well, before me is the motion to 14 compel discovery from defense expert Mark Racine. As I under-15 stand it, Mr. Racine was served with a subpoena issued from 16 this Court requiring him to produce certain documents, and that 17 Mr. Racine is the designated expert for the defendant. And 18 I've read the defendants' response, which seemed to present no
19 objection to the materials being requested but to some 20 procedural problems. And so who is going to speak for -- Mr.
21 Justis?

22 MR. JUSTIS: That's how we understand it also. As an
23 initial matter, we just received defendants' response Friday, I
24 think it was faxed to us.

THE COURT: Okay.

1                   MR. JUSTIS: Defendants -- We have not issued a
2 subpoena to defendants nor have we sought this Court to
3 exercise jurisdiction over defendants. We've issued a subpoena
4 to Mark Racine.

5                   THE COURT: Yes.

6                   MR. JUSTIS: Who is not a party. Defendants have no
7 standing to object to the subpoena of Mark Racine. That's 8 pretty clear. I have --

9                   THE COURT: Why?

10                  MR. JUSTIS: I'll read it right out of Wright &
11 Miller.

12                  THE COURT: Yes.

13                  MR. JUSTIS: "A motion to quash or for protective
14 order should be made by the person from whom the documents
15 or things are requested. Ordinarily a party has no stand-
16 ing to seek to quash a subpoena issued to someone who is 17 not a party to the action."

18                  THE COURT: That's true, except this is their expert.
19 I think there's a nexus, a significant interest in Mr. Racine
20 for them to appear and object to the subpoena.

21                  MR. JUSTIS: And I do have a case that talks to that 22 specifically again. I was not able to prepare --

23                  THE COURT: I'm familiar.

24                  MR. JUSTIS: And that's fine. We are prepared to 25 talk to all their objections.

1                 THE COURT: I'm familiar with that and I subscribe to 2 that view except in those cases where the individual who was
3 objecting has an interest in the particular subject matter of 4 the subpoena, and in this case, this is their designated
5 expert.

6                 MR. JUSTIS: Fine, your Honor, and we are prepared to 7 speak to all the objections they've raised.

8                 THE COURT: Okay.

9                 MR. JUSTIS: The first one, they say that we have not 10 served Mr. Racine with the motion to compel after Mr. Racine
11 filed timely objections to the subpoena duces tecum.

12                 THE COURT: Well, wait. Let's see. We have a 13 subpoena, which is an order of this Court upon Mr. Racine to 14 produce the documents. And that was served on him and so we 15 certainly have -- And he resides in the Northern District of 16 Illinois and the subpoena was issued out of the Northern 17 District of Illinois. And the records are within the Northern 18 District of Illinois.

19                 MR. JUSTIS: That is all correct.

20                 THE COURT: Well, it seems like we have jurisdiction
21 over this individual.

22                 MR. JUSTIS: What they are arguing is that he was not 23 served with our motion to compel.

24                 THE COURT: Okay.

25                 MR. SPRAGUE: Excuse me, your Honor, does the Court

1 have Mr. Racine's objections which were filed? They probably 2 weren't filed with --

3 THE COURT: Yes. Yes, I've seen them before.

4 MR. SPRAGUE: Okay.

5 THE COURT: That we have objections to the subpoenas.

6 MR. SPRAGUE: I just wanted to make sure that the 7 Court was aware that he timely filed objections to the 8 subpoena.

9 MR. JUSTIS: Let me speak to that first.

10 THE COURT: Well, let me tell you something, fellows.
11 I read all that correspondence, that fancy correspondence you
12 fellows issue to one another, and I'm on the same boat with the 13 Magistrate in Kansas City. Some of this is the silliest stuff
14 I've ever seen when, indeed, we have an expert who is obligated
15 under Rule 26 to provide this information. And I find it
16 ludicrous where one attorney says I'll give it to you if you
17 don't ask another expert for the same material. I mean I never 18 heard of any -- It's ludicrous.

19 Go ahead. He filed some objections.

20 MR. JUSTIS: He did not file any objections. They 21 did not file a miscellaneous action. What they did was they --
22 Mr. Sprague's office prepared those objections and I think
23 attempted to file them with this Court. No miscellaneous
24 action was ever opened by Mr. Racine. No motion to quash was 25 ever filed.

1           We received those objections, I believe it was either
2 the day before the day that Mr. Racine was supposed to produce
3 the documents. We immediately sent a letter to Mr. Sprague
4 saying we really don't understand this curious instrument. Did
5 you file a miscellaneous action in the Northern District of 6 Illinois? And also, Mr. Racine, it appears that he has signed
7 this as if he's appearing pro se. Is that the case? Or will 8 he have representation? And those letters are attached to our
9 motion there. Exhibit N is our letter.

10           The response letter we got was, it stated in part by 11 Mr. Sprague:

12           "Should you choose to open collateral proceedings in 13 other jurisdictions instead of negotiating a sensible
14 resolution of this matter, be advised that my office will 15 represent the respective experts with the assistance of 16 local counsel if necessary."

17           At that point in time he indicated to us that he
18 represents Mr. Racine, so we served the motion to compel upon
19 Mr. Sprague. Thereafter, I'll let my cocounsel talk about 20 discussions she had with his office.

21           MS. WRONA: Your Honor, Pat Wrona.

22           THE COURT: So you served the motion on Mr. Sprague.

23           MS. WRONA: That's correct, your Honor.

24           THE COURT: And he indicated he's representing him.

25           MR. JUSTIS: Correct.

1 MS. WRONA: And that came out of my office here in
2 Chicago. After we filed the motion, your Honor may recall here
3 that we first filed it in front of Judge Bucklo to get her to 4 reopen the matter and refer it to you.

5 THE COURT: Yes.

6 MS. WRONA: Since you had dealt with us before.

7 THE COURT: Yes.

8 MS. WRONA: And right before that motion date was to 9 come along, I was called by Melissa Hines, who is an associate,
10 I believe, of Mr. Sprague's office, and she wanted to fax to 11 us, both Mr. Justis and I, documents from Mr. Racine. And I
12 said sure, go ahead, so she faxed, I don't know, a dozen or so
13 documents which seemed to be basically his report. Mr. Justis
14 got it as well. And with a letter essentially saying, you
15 know, so does that solve everything and we don't have to come
16 to Chicago and see Judge Bucklo?

17 And so we received the documents. I talked to Mr.
18 Justis and we didn't believe it did resolve the matters for the 19 motion so I indicated -- I had called Bucklo's office, found
20 out we didn't have to appear, and that the matter would be 21 referred to your Honor.

22 The other conversation I had with Mr. Hynes of Mr.
23 Sprague's office was just last week when we got a sense that
24 maybe they were going to have local counsel, and so when I was 25 preparing to re-notice this motion for this morning, I found

1 out from your minute clerk that we needed to do that, I called
2 her up to find out where should this notice go to. I mean who
3 -- Does it come to you? And --

4 THE COURT: This is -- Whom were you speaking with?

5 MS. WRONA: This is Ms. Hynes of Mr. Sprague's
6 office.

7 THE COURT: In Texas.

8 MS. WRONA: Yes, in Texas.

9 THE COURT: Yes.

10 MS. WRONA: And she said I don't know who the local 11 counsel is yet. Mr. Sprague's been dealing with them, but send 12 it to us. So those have been my conversations, my understand-
13 ing that they represented Mr. Racine for purposes of today's 14 motion.

15 THE COURT: Anything else?

16 MR. JUSTIS: That's the -- Do you want to take these 17 one at a time?

18 THE COURT: Well, let me hear from Mr. Sprague. Mr.
19 Sprague?

20 MR. SPRAGUE: Yes, sir. Your Honor, --

21 THE COURT: Is that really you here? or are you a
22 vision?

23 MR. SPRAGUE: I am really Mr. Sprague.

24 THE COURT: Because I'm not sure when I read all this 25 correspondence, --

1                   MR. SPRAGUE: I am really Mr. Sprague, I am really
2 from San Antonio and I consider it a privilege to be allowed to
3 appear before you. I also consider it a privilege to represent
4 Learjet. I've done that since the early '90s. And I do
5 represent Learjet in this case. I represent Bombardier, Inc.
6 in this case. Mr. Racine is our expert witness.

7                   The parties to the case before you now are Learjet
8 and Bombardier, Inc. So I'll gladly accept notices of hearings
9 and things like that in your court in this proceeding because 10 they're the only parties to this proceeding and I do represent
11 them.

12                  As was clearly set forth in the letter to Mr. Justis,
13 I told him if you want to go forward with these collateral
14 actions that he's now filed in three separate states --

15                  THE COURT: What collateral actions?

16                  MR. SPRAGUE: This one, one in Tulsa and one in 17 Boston.

18                  THE COURT: Well, I mean you say that in a way as 19 though they've done something wrong.

20                  MR. SPRAGUE: No, sir, I don't think they -- I think 21 they followed the rules, except that they haven't formally
22 served Mr. Racine --

23                  THE COURT: Well, you know, what I could do, if Mr.
24 Racine is not -- I'll make this simple. I'll issue an order
25 barring Mr. Racine from giving any testimony in this case and

1 I'll send that off to the judge in Kansas and that will take
2 care of the whole matter.

3 MR. SPRAGUE: Well, your Honor, I respectfully
4 disagree that that, A., would take care of the matter, or B.,
5 that that would be appropriate. The documents responsive to 6 the subpoena have been provided. In fact, many of the 7 documents responsive to the subpoena were provided before the 8 subpoena was even served. That is all the documents that he 9 reviewed, all the documents that were sent to him, all the 10 documents that he relied upon to render his opinions, a
11 complete copy of his report, all the Rule 26 disclosures were 12 all completed and sent to him before this subpoena issue ever
13 came up.

14 THE COURT: Did you send the information with respect
15 to what he has been paid as an expert in this case? Did you
16 send that?

17 MR. SPRAGUE: He hasn't been paid anything in this
18 case. We sent him -- We sent the information required --

19 THE COURT: Did you send -- Well --

20 MR. SPRAGUE: -- under Rule 26.

21 THE COURT: Did you send the contract under which 22 he's to be paid to the plaintiffs?

23 MR. SPRAGUE: The only thing responsive to the 24 subpoena in that regard that was not provided prior to the 25 filing of this motion was what my letter to Mr. Racine asking

1 for the Rule 26 report, which had the front line confirmed --

2 THE COURT: You mean he's working for free?

3 MR. SPRAGUE: No, sir. That confirmed his
4 engagement. We had agreed, but there had been nothing in
5 writing up to that point. And so that letter confirmed --

6 THE COURT: Do you have a contract with Mr. Racine
7 with respect to his services as an expert?

8 MR. SPRAGUE: The only -- No, sir. The only document
9 we have in that regard is my letter confirming his engagement
10 at a rate of $150 an hour and $200 an hour for testimony.

11 THE COURT: Okay, and --

12 MR. SPRAGUE: And that has been provided to them.

13 THE COURT: Okay. And he has not billed you?

14 MR. SPRAGUE: He has not billed us.

15 THE COURT: Okay.

16 MR. SPRAGUE: In fact, I found out as a result of 17 this that he hasn't even been keeping time records. Mr. Racine
18 is a pilot, your Honor. He's not an expert witness-type
19 witness. He's an operator --

20 THE COURT: Wait, wait, stop right there. Did you
21 designate him under Rule 26 as an expert?

22 MR. SPRAGUE: Yes, sir, I did.

23 THE COURT: All right then, don't tell me he's not an 24 expert.

25 MR. SPRAGUE: Well, what I'm telling you is he's not

1       routinely in the business of doing this, so he doesn't have the
2 time records. He doesn't have all that stuff.

3           THE COURT: I don't care what he has or doesn't have.
4 Just send what you have.

5           MR. SPRAGUE: And it's been sent.

6           THE COURT: Okay. Then you --

7           MR. SPRAGUE: They've got all those documents, your
8 Honor.

9           THE COURT: Okay.

10          MR. SPRAGUE: The point is --

11          THE COURT: Then the remaining documents are . . .

12          MR. SPRAGUE: Everything from Mr. --

13          THE COURT: Did you send all the correspondence he's 14 looked at?

15          MR. SPRAGUE: Everything that Mr. Racine --

16          THE COURT: Your letters between him and you?

17          MR. SPRAGUE: Yes, sir. Everything Mr. Racine has 18 that is responsive to that subpoena has been provided despite 19 the objections that were filed by Mr. Racine.

20          THE COURT: Well, what the heck did he file the 21 objections for, if he provided all that?

22          MR. SPRAGUE: He filed the objections basically to 23 buy us time to respond to this because I was on my way to 24 Belfast, Northern Ireland for two weeks. Counsel knew that.
25 We had set up a time to take these people's depositions before

1 I left for Belfast as a courtesy to counsel because of the 2 pending discovery deadlines.

3 THE COURT: All right, let me tell you something.

4 MR. SPRAGUE: And this whole dispute arises --

5 THE COURT: Let me tell you something. I read all
6 the correspondence.

7 MR. SPRAGUE: Okay.

8 THE COURT: It appears to me from the getgo you're
9 not giving them anything and you're conditioning production
10 upon them, upon the plaintiff relinquishing a similar request
11 on some of your other experts. That's what I've read. And 12 this is the first time I've heard that you presented everything
13 to them. If you did, I don't know what you fellows are doing
14 here spending your clients' money.

15 MR. SPRAGUE: Well, your Honor, I agree with that.

16 THE COURT: I mean you've got maybe -- Learjet must 17 have all the money in the world, don't care what they spend
18 because this is the silliest thing I've ever seen.

19 MR. SPRAGUE: And again, your Honor, I agree with 20 that.

21 THE COURT: Well --

22 MR. SPRAGUE: I don't think we should be here.

23 THE COURT: Have you made a complete production?
24 Have you made complete production as to the document requests
25 that was in the subpoena?

1 MR. SPRAGUE: Absolutely, yes, sir.

2 THE COURT: What do you think of that?

3 MR. JUSTIS: Let me speak to that, please.

4 THE COURT: Okay.

5 MR. JUSTIS: Because this gets much sillier. Here's 6 the fax that he produced to us, the documents. What they
7 produced to us were four documents.

8 THE COURT: Okay.

9 MR. JUSTIS: The objections, the subpoena itself --

10 THE COURT: Yes?

11 MR. JUSTIS: -- another copy of his report, and a
12 two-and-a-half page letter from him to Mr. Racine confirming
13 what he just stated. So they produced one new document, that 14 three-page letter.

15 Now let's look at that in comparison to what they
16 have said, both in their objections and all that. They with-
17 held that one three-page letter from us and would not let --

18 THE COURT: The letter? You mean the letter from Mr.
19 Sprague to Mr. Racine?

20 MR. JUSTIS: Right. They claim that's the only
21 document responsive to our document subpoena. They withheld
22 that, would not produce it, being the only document as they 23 claim, if that is the only document, and allow us to take his 24 deposition based on the production of that one document because 25 they wanted us to withdraw the document request to the expert

1       in Boston.

2                 Now let's look at that one letter in comparison with 3       their objections. They objected, stating that production of 4       documents would violate his privacy, his tax information. How
5       does that letter violate his tax information? They objected
6       and said our document requests were vague, ambiguous, overly-
7       broad and unduly burdensome? How does any of that relate to 8       one three-page letter?

9                 They also said that it would take him a substantial
10      amount of time and resources to pull together the documents to 11      respond to that subpoena. A three-page letter? That's how 12      silly this is, your Honor. We agree that it's silly. That's 13      why we think this is about as appropriate a case for costs as 14      you can get. And we have incurred significant costs to get a
15      three-page letter which they could have produced and we did
16      agree, if they would produce all these documents, we would have 17      taken his deposition in San Antonio as they wanted. But they 18      refused to do that because they wanted to hold this three-page
19      letter hostage unless we withdrew the document requests to the 20      expert in Boston. It's ludicrous.

21                 THE COURT: Well, that's what I've read. Mr.
22       Sprague, is that an accurate representation of what's happened
23       here?

24                 MR. SPRAGUE: No, sir, I don't believe that 25       accurately represents what's happened. Counsel forgets that we

1 sent him volumes of the materials before the subpoena issue
2 ever even came up under Rule 26 disclosures.

3 THE COURT: With respect to --

4 MR. SPRAGUE: With respect to Mr. Racine.

5 THE COURT: These were the documents Mr. Racine --

6 MR. SPRAGUE: Everything Mr. Racine ever reviewed in 7 connection with this case that he relied upon to render his 8 opinions in this case.

9 THE COURT: So what about these -- You mean you're 10 all here on these three pages?

11 MR. SPRAGUE: We're all here because we couldn't 12 negotiate a reasonable solution to this issue before I left for 13 Belfast, Northern Ireland. That's why we're here.

14 THE COURT: What was the reasonable solution?

15 MR. SPRAGUE: Well, we were working on that. I was 16 trying to get him to say what exactly -- You've read my
17 letters. There's numerous times in my letters where I've said
18 tell me what documents you want specifically and we can
19 negotiate what documents we can produce before the deposition.

20 Now you have to remember, your Honor, discovery --

21 THE COURT: What do you mean negotiate?

22 MR. SPRAGUE: -- had already passed in this case.

23 THE COURT: What do you mean negotiate? You produced 24 everything that the expert read and relied on, including
25 directions to him from you?

1                   MR. SPRAGUE: Absolutely.

2                   THE COURT: You provide the contract under which he
3 is going to be employed as an expert. You give them documenta-
4 tion as to what he was paid. What are you negotiating?

5                   MR. SPRAGUE: Well, your Honor, we gave them every 6 bit of that before the motion was served, because there is no
7 written contract.

8                   THE COURT: You gave them this letter?

9                   MR. SPRAGUE: There is no contract. To the extent
10 that that --

11                  THE COURT: Fine, there's no contract.

12                  MR. SPRAGUE: So that was not covered by the 13 subpoena. My letter --

14                  THE COURT: Did you tell them there was no contract?

15                  MR. SPRAGUE: My letter to him is not a letter upon 16 which he relied in forming his opinion so it's not technically 17 responsive to the subpoena.

18                  THE COURT: What letter?

19                  MR. SPRAGUE: The letter that we've been discussing,
20 this three-page letter he's talking about, is basically a
21 request for him to write a Rule 26 report for us.

22                  THE COURT: Well, that's close enough.

23                  MR. SPRAGUE: In the 26.(a) disclosures that we told 24 him the rates upon which he was retained so they had all that
25 information. We provided all the documents that he reviewed,

1 extra copies of all the documents that he reviewed, even though
2 they had the vast majority of those documents already in
3 discovery. So they've gotten all those documents.

4 THE COURT: Well, all you had to do was tell them he 5 relied on this particular document and that particular, but --

6 MR. SPRAGUE: And we did.

7 THE COURT: -- maybe it was more efficacious to 8 duplicate the documents. Fine.

9 MR. SPRAGUE: We provided them with all those things
10 before this motion was ever filed, your Honor.

11 THE COURT: You didn't make complete disclosure.

12 MR. SPRAGUE: I disagree. I think we provided
13 complete disclosure.

14 THE COURT: When you provided him with this large
15 body of documents, --

16 MR. SPRAGUE: Right.

17 THE COURT: -- were the documents you just referred 18 to, your letter, the contract, included within that 19 transmission?

20 MR. SPRAGUE: All except for that letter, yes.
21 Everything except that letter. Let me show you what that 22 letter is, your Honor.

23 (Pause.)

24 (Inaudible) I have it.

25 (Pause.)

1 May I approach, your Honor?

2 THE COURT: Sure. So when did you -- This is --

3 MR. SPRAGUE: My office --

4 THE COURT: Well, this is exactly what has to be
5 provided. And when did you provide this to the plaintiffs?

6 MR. SPRAGUE: Whatever the date on that fax is. It
7 was sent while I was in Belfast.

8 THE COURT: I don't know where the hell that is.

9 MR. SPRAGUE: I think it's right (inaudible).

10 THE COURT: Okay. Oh, here we are.

11 MR. SPRAGUE: (Inaudible).

12 THE COURT: Okay, all right. No, --

13 MR. SPRAGUE: It should be that date. Is there a
14 date on it?

15 MR. JUSTIS: We received that by fax on March 8th,
16 your Honor.

17 THE COURT: March 8th?

18 MR. SPRAGUE: (Inaudible).

19 MR. JUSTIS: After we filed our motion.

20 THE COURT: Well, wouldn't that end the situation for 21 you then?

22 MR. JUSTIS: Your Honor, if that's all the documents
23 he has -- Let me speak to something first. We never issued a
24 subpoena asking for documents he relied on. We already had 25 those documents. We issued a subpoena asking for three

1 specific types of documents, the same types they asked from our
2 experts, which we produced: All things and things created by
3 you that relate to this litigation.

4 THE COURT: Okay. Now let me stop you there. That 5 he created.

6 MR. JUSTIS: Right.

7 THE COURT: Has he created any documents, Mr.
8 Sprague?

9 MR. SPRAGUE: No, sir.

10 THE COURT: So why didn't you just tell them that?

11 MR. SPRAGUE: I did.

12 THE COURT: When?

13 MR. SPRAGUE: We told him in one of the letters that 14 you've read.

15 THE COURT: Did he tell you that?

16 MR. SPRAGUE: They wrote all kinds of stuff. I
17 couldn't tell what they had and what they didn't have. It was 18 apparent from the letters that they had all kinds of documents,
19 and from their objections he was going to have to spend undue
20 time and expense gathering these documents.

21 THE COURT: Well, that's what I read. You had this
22 mass of documents you had to go through. I mean you wrote
23 that. All you had to do was say, hey, Mr. Racine hasn't really
24 created anything. That's all you had to say.

25 MR. SPRAGUE: When --

1 THE COURT: One letter.

2 MR. SPRAGUE: When --

3 THE COURT: One letter, maybe two paragraphs.

4 MR. SPRAGUE: When Mr. Racine filed his objections,
5 your Honor, you have to remember that I was overseas. We
6 didn't have an opportunity for me to come to Chicago and go
7 through Mr. Racine's file or to discuss in depth with him what
8 he had -- (inaudible, multiple voices).

9 THE COURT: Well, you had -- Wait a second. When is 10 all this correspondence that I've read?

11 MR. SPRAGUE: That's what -- (inaudible, multiple 12 voices).

13 THE COURT: I was here last night reading all this 14 stuff. I said I can't believe this.

15 MR. SPRAGUE: That's from early on, your Honor.

16 MR. JUSTIS: It's --

17 THE COURT: I mean it all relates to the expert's
18 documents.

19 MR. SPRAGUE: Yes, sir, it does. Now --

20 THE COURT: You know, you guys from Texas are 21 supposed to be straight shooters.

22 MR. SPRAGUE: I think I am, Judge.

23 THE COURT: Well, I read all this mass of corre-
24 spondence and I don't get it. I honest to God don't get it.

25 MR. SPRAGUE: Well --

1           THE COURT: You have a -- Let me ask you this, Mr.
2 Justis. He provided you with the documents that he relied on.

3           MR. JUSTIS: Before we even issued the subpoena, yes.

4           THE COURT: But you issued the subpoena.

5           MR. JUSTIS: That's correct.

6           THE COURT: Then did you make an informal request of 7 these three items?

8           MR. JUSTIS: That's correct.

9           THE COURT: And the response was?

10          MR. JUSTIS: You have to serve us --

11          THE COURT: You didn't get them?

12          MR. JUSTIS: -- with formal discovery. You have to 13 serve us with formal discovery.

14          THE COURT: Serve with formal discovery.

15          MR. JUSTIS: Which we did.

16          THE COURT: And you did, and that was by way of a
17 subpoena.

18          MR. JUSTIS: That's correct.

19          THE COURT: Okay. And don't tell me, Mr. Sprague,
20 you're not representing Mr. Racine because you are.

21          All your correspondence implies that, and you said
22 that in your correspondence, and he's your expert.

23          MR. SPRAGUE: I -- He is my expert.

24          THE COURT: So you're responsible for getting this to 25 them.

1 MR. SPRAGUE: Your Honor, if the discovery --

2 THE COURT: So did you ever write them, I mean right
3 off the getgo, saying he hasn't really drafted or created any
4 documents?

5 MR. SPRAGUE: Yes. In fact there's letters in that 6 stack that you read that said he doesn't have any drafts, he
7 doesn't have all -- What he has and what he doesn't have.

8 THE COURT: Show me that letter.

9 MR. SPRAGUE: Yes, sir.

10 (Pause.)

11 It's the February 11 letter. I believe it's Exhibit
12 G to their motion, your Honor.

13 THE COURT: Okay, Exhibit G.

14 MR. SPRAGUE: I've already provided you with a 15 copy --

16 THE COURT: Okay, this is from you.

17 MR. SPRAGUE: Yes, sir.

18 THE COURT: This will confirm the availability of our 19 expert for deposition as agreed.

20 MR. SPRAGUE: No, February 11, your Honor.

21 THE COURT: February 11.

22 MR. SPRAGUE: Maybe I had the wrong -- (inaudible, 23 multiple voices).

24 THE COURT: Oh, I looked at the wrong -- I'm sorry.
25 I looked at the wrong one. I'm in receipt of the Rule 45

1 subpoena delivered to Racine.

2 MR. SPRAGUE: Right.

3 THE COURT: I have not heard from Mr. Snow. I guess
4 that's another expert.

5 MR. SPRAGUE: Yes, that's the man in Tulsa, your
6 Honor.

7 THE COURT: All right. As you know, my last letter
8 offered to negotiate the production of certain documents that I
9 assumed you wanted prior to deposition of our expert. What do
10 mean, negotiate? Why didn't you say I'm trying to get all
11 these documents to you?

12 MR. SPRAGUE: Well, your Honor --

13 THE COURT: Why do you have to say that?

14 MR. SPRAGUE: If you'll look at the letter where he 15 requests them, he had a whole page of conditions upon which he 16 expected us to meet, and this is again all in, you know, he 17 wants us to do it immediately. He wants us to do it on his 18 time schedule and it's all extra -- It's all way beyond what 19 the rules would require, your Honor. And that's typical in 20 this case.

21 THE COURT: You know what? Wait a second.

22 MR. SPRAGUE: It --

23 THE COURT: Wait a second. As it turns out, there's 24 four pages of documents or three pages of document. All you
25 had to do was say in a letter there's -- Let's see, let me --

1 When is the first correspondence?

2 MR. SPRAGUE: Your Honor?

3 THE COURT: Here's one --

4 MR. SPRAGUE: It says --

5 THE COURT: Hold it, hold it, hold it. Hold on 6 there. Let's see.

7 (Pause.)

8 You have a letter from -- Let's see where we are.

9 Well, I see you're jacking them around on -- What's 10 the date of this one?

11 (Pause.)

12 Well, that's February 6th. You're talking about the 13 draft reports and there's a lot of verbiage here. All you had 14 to do was say here, I got four documents, four letters and I'm 15 sending them to you and that should satisfy the situation
16 because Mr. Racine hasn't made any written reports. But we're 17 in February 11.

18 (Pause.)

19 You're talking about Edgar.

20 MR. SPRAGUE: Eagar.

21 THE COURT: Eagar. Eagar.

22 (Pause.)

23 If you withdraw your subpoenas to our experts, we are 24 willing to ask Mr. Eagar for a list of other cases he worked on 25 for Learjet. Well, that's handy to you. I think you're

1 required to indicate where he testified or had been deposed as 2 an expert.

3 MR. SPRAGUE: Which we've done, your Honor. That's 4 what generated the subpoena for four years of financial 5 records.

6 THE COURT: All right. We're going to grant the 7 motion to compel the discovery and if you have provided the 8 discovery, you are directed, Mr. Sprague, to make a certifica-
9 tion, under oath, to the plaintiffs that documents that you
10 have provided to them satisfy the three requests and you'll 11 show in your certification which documents relate to which of 12 the three requests. One request you say there are no
13 documents, and we'll take your certification there are no such 14 documents.

15 MR. SPRAGUE: (Inaudible).

16 THE COURT: With respect to the correspondence,
17 you've indicated there's only one bit of correspondence to the 18 expert. Well, any documents or tangible things between the 19 defendant and its expert, including the attorney correspond-
20 ence. And you're here to say that that is it, that one letter
21 you just showed me, the letter of January 9th to Mr. Racine
22 from yourself.

23 MR. SPRAGUE: That's the only one that had not
24 previously been provided, yes.

25 THE COURT: All right, and there are no others?

1 MR. SPRAGUE: There are no others.

2 THE COURT: Well, you'll certify that.

3 MR. SPRAGUE: There are none that have not been 4 provided.

5 THE COURT: All right, you'll certify that. And all
6 retainer agreements, billing statements, and you have that?

7 MR. SPRAGUE: Yes.

8 THE COURT: You provided that? Have you?

9 MR. SPRAGUE: As I said earlier, your Honor, they
10 have everything that Mr. Racine has that's responsive to that 11 subpoena.

12 THE COURT: I'm asking you with respect to Item 3:
13 All retainer agreements, billing statements, time records,
14 other documents generated by Mr. Racine with respect to his 15 services in this litigation. Have you done that?

16 MR. SPRAGUE: Yes, sir.

17 THE COURT: Okay, and you're asserting there are no
18 others?

19 MR. SPRAGUE: There are no others.

20 THE COURT: And you'll be --

21 MR. SPRAGUE: I confirmed that with Mr. Racine this 22 morning.

23 THE COURT: Okay. And you're going to be required to 24 supplement this production request as documents come into 25 existence.

1 MR. SPRAGUE: That's fair, your Honor.

2 THE COURT: And that's going to be the order. And
3 Mr. Justice, you're going to draft this order for me indicating
4 that you're going to get a certification under oath from Mr.
5 Sprague as to completion of the requests indicating whether 6 there are or are not documents, and those documents he had 7 provided exhaust the subpoena, and that he will be required to 8 supplement.

9 MR. JUSTIS: Your Honor, point of clarification?

10 THE COURT: Yes?

11 MR. JUSTIS: Mr. Racine, when he did respond,
12 indicated these were all the documents in his possession.

13 THE COURT: That exist.

14 MR. JUSTIS: That exist.

15 THE COURT: Yes.

16 MR. JUSTIS: Certainly he is to respond to documents
17 within his possession or control.

18 THE COURT: Yes.

19 MR. JUSTIS: And we would argue that those include
20 documents that his attorneys possess. So I want to make sure
21 when we're talking about any correspondence, we're also talking
22 about correspondence that may have come from his attorneys that 23 he may not longer possess but they have copies of.

24 MR. SPRAGUE: There's no such correspondence, your
25 Honor.

1                   THE COURT: Well, put that in the order.

2                   MR. JUSTIS: Another point, please. We are going to 3 go ahead and issue a subpoena for his deposition in this
4 jurisdiction, so we'd like to keep this collateral matter open
5 for the purposes of conducting that deposition, much like we
6 did with one of the other witnesses in this case.

7                   THE COURT: Do you have a date for this deposition to 8 take place?

9                   MR. JUSTIS: We do not. As frankly, right now, we
10 have a motion to extend the discovery deadline. Our expert
11 discovery deadline passed. We were not able to take those dep-
12 ositions because we could not get any of the documents. We 13 have a pending motion and our reply to that motion is due by 14 noon on Friday. We wanted to have this proceeding first so we 15 could report to the court the results of this proceeding. But
16 we should be getting -- I can't imagine they're going to agree
17 to produce him for deposition until we have an extension of 18 that expert discovery deadline. So we're going to have to wait
19 to see if that is extended and if we have that opportunity.

20                  THE COURT: Well, Mr. Racine lives here in this area?

21                  MR. JUSTIS: That is correct.

22                  MR. SPRAGUE: His deposition was originally scheduled
23 in San Antonio, Judge. If he's deposed up here, I suppose that 24 I don't have a problem with that but --

25                  THE COURT: Well, that's for your convenience.

1                   MR. SPRAGUE: Well actually, it was for his conven-
2 ience so he could do both my experts in the same place at the 3 same time.

4                   THE COURT: Well, it's for everybody's convenience.
5 It saves time and money and everything else.

6                   MR. SPRAGUE: That was the intention, your Honor. I
7 guess I don't have any objection to that, is what I'm saying.
8 I don't know that his deposition will actually be taken or that
9 it will be taken up here.

10                  MR. JUSTIS: The only reason I suggest that, your 11 Honor, is if it comes to light during his deposition that there
12 are other documents that have not been produced, we want to be
13 able to alert the Court to that since the Court is familiar
14 with the document dispute.

15                  THE COURT: I'm going to take under advisement the 16 issue of whether costs should be assessed against defendant.
17 Mr. Sprague, why should you not pay for the expense of these 18 proceedings when all you had to do, you had three letters. Was 19 it three pages?

20                  MR. JUSTIS: Three pages.

21                  THE COURT: Three pages.

22                  MR. JUSTIS: One three-page letter.

23                  THE COURT: All you had to do was send it over to 24 them with an explanation that, number one, he didn't produce
25 any documents and this is everything that meets the three

1 requests. Why didn't you do that right at the getgo?

2 MR. SPRAGUE: Your Honor, A., I didn't know that that
3 was the limit of the documents in Mr. Racine's file at that
4 point, but B., I'm a firm believer in following the rules. We
5 file discovery requests. We respond to discovery requests in 6 accordance with the rules, and I tried to work with counsel
7 professionally to make things go as easily as possible. And 8 that's what I tried to do in this case.

9 THE COURT: How do you show me that to be true? How 10 do you show me that to be true? Tell me -- Show me the 11 correspondence that establishes that representation to the 12 Court.

13 MR. SPRAGUE: Well, your Honor, just the fact that we 14 were trying to take our experts in San Antonio so we could get 15 them both done with the least amount of travel and the least
16 amount of expense and in a timely fashion before the discovery
17 cutoff. That's something we certainly didn't have to do. It
18 was certainly something that was saving expenses for the 19 plaintiffs. It wasn't going to save us any money because I had 20 to fly my experts in as opposed to me flying to them. That's 21 one example of how we were trying to make this the easy way.

22 The offers that we made to try to resolve this issue
23 without any involvement of any -- of your Court, of the court
24 in Tulsa or the court in Massachusetts, all those offers went
25 completely --

1                   THE COURT: Well, what do you mean an offer to --
2 There are three documents. Why didn't you just say here they
3 are? This is it.

4                   MR. SPRAGUE: Your Honor, had I known that that was 5 the only three documents that were not produced out of Mr.
6 Racine's file, I think I certainly would have done that. But I
7 did --

8                   THE COURT: Well, when did you find out?

9                   MR. SPRAGUE: Well, Melissa found that out while I
10 was in Belfast.

11                  THE COURT: And that was when?

12                  MR. SPRAGUE: That was after they filed the motion to 13 compel. Or -- Yes, after they filed the motion to compel.

14                  THE COURT: What do you think of that, Mr. Justis?

15                  MR. JUSTIS: One, he has other personnel in his 16 office. They could easily have just picked up the phone and 17 said, Mr. Racine, what do you have in response to this?

18                  Two, they have the largest firm in Kansas City
19 representing them, nearly 500 lawyers. They've got plenty of 20 lawyers on the case there. One of them could have called him.

21                  They also have used the services of Lord, Bissell &
22 Brook right here in Chicago on several -- They've served seven
23 to 10 Rule 45 subpoenas in this case. You've heard issues with 24 respect to a couple of them.

25                  I will remind your Honor that the last time we were

1 here they had issued a Rule 45 subpoena to the two principals
2 of plaintiff seeking their personal tax returns for the past
3 five years after the court in the District of Kansas gave an
4 advisory ruling that those weren't relevant, and forced us to 5 come up here and file the motion to quash.

6 And upon leaving that hearing that day, I talked with
7 Ms. Wrona about this, you indicated that you had considered
8 assessing costs against them based upon the fact they made us
9 do that. This is much more egregious than that. Much more.

10 THE COURT: Well, Mr. Sprague?

11 MR. SPRAGUE: Your Honor, --

12 THE COURT: You got a legion of lawyers working for 13 you. You have one of the finest law firms here in Chicago.

14 MR. SPRAGUE: Well, that --

15 THE COURT: And you have your witness in Chicago.

16 And you have this Kansas City group that's got a large body of 17 lawyers.

18 MR. SPRAGUE: Your Honor, --

19 THE COURT: You're not exactly there by yourself. I
20 take it you have another lawyer working with you.

21 MR. SPRAGUE: I have several lawyers in my firm, your 22 Honor, that's true. And in hindsight, you know, throwing more
23 money at it, more lawyers at it may have been the better thing
24 to do.

25 THE COURT: What do you mean throwing more lawyers?

1 There are three pages, counsel.

2 MR. SPRAGUE: I know, your Honor, but I had to have a
3 lawyer up here in Chicago go out and meet with the witness and 4 go through his file or have the witness send -- copy his entire
5 file and send it to a lawyer for review, and I was frankly
6 trying to avoid that.

7 Your Honor, I find it terribly ironic that counsel
8 should raise this financial records issue where he fought us
9 tooth and nail that the financial conditions of his clients are 10 irrelevant in this case, when this whole dispute arises from 11 the fact that he's asked for four years' worth of financial 12 records from an expert in Boston. Now if the plaintiffs'
13 financial condition is not relevant to their credibility and to 14 their positions in the lawsuit, how can the financial condition
15 of an expert witness be any more relevant?

16 THE COURT: I don't know what he asked in Boston.

17 MR. SPRAGUE: Well, but that's what generated the --

18 THE COURT: If he asked --

19 MR. SPRAGUE: That's what generated this dispute.

20 THE COURT: If the request in Boston is similar to 21 the request here, I don't know what you're talking about.

22 MR. SPRAGUE: Well, it's not. It's got six extra
23 things asking for financial records from all its consulting,
24 both litigation and non-litigation, by case and by amount for 25 the last four years. So that's the kind of discovery abuse

1 we've been facing from his side. That's what generated the
2 dispute and rightly or wrongly, we attempted to negotiate a
3 global resolution of these three expert issues at the same time
4 instead of dealing with them one at a time. That's -- It was 5 all done in good faith and in an effort to try to minimize this
6 kind of expense and this kind of involvement.

7 No one wanted to open up three separate actions in 8 three separate states again to deal with this discovery issue.
9 And still, I'm surprised, having produced all the documents,
10 told them we produced all the documents, that they still
11 dragged us up here for this hearing. They've got the documents
12 from Mr. Racine. They've got the documents from Mr. Snow.
13 They have now served, properly, the witness in Boston.

14 THE COURT: Well, let me ask you something. You
15 indicated in your correspondence you were not available to a
16 notice for the production of documents under Rule 26 with 17 respect to the expert.

18 MR. SPRAGUE: I think what I said was that they had 19 waited too late and that the 30-day time limit under the rules
20 had expired.

21 THE COURT: What 30-day time limit?

22 MR. SPRAGUE: To respond -- If you're going to
23 subpoena a witness to a deposition --

24 THE COURT: Well, no, let's back up before the 25 subpoena.

1 MR. SPRAGUE: Okay.

2 THE COURT: Did you, under the rules, just make a
3 production request for the expert's materials?

4 MR. JUSTIS: No, we did not. We did not make a Rule
5 34 request. What had happened was they had requested, and we
6 did not object to it and easily granted an extension of time
7 for them to disclose their expert opinions. So they cut into
8 our discovery period. We sent the letter originally on January
9 29th. So we had more than 30 days --

10 THE COURT: On January 29th you asked them for what?

11 MR. JUSTIS: We asked them for the documents that 12 were part and parcel of the subpoena.

13 THE COURT: Under Rule 26.

14 MR. JUSTIS: Yes.

15 MR. SPRAGUE: Well, that was --

16 MR. JUSTIS: No --

17 MR. SPRAGUE: -- in the correspondence. And I
18 offered to treat that as a Rule 26 discovery request and he 19 rejected that offer.

20 MR. JUSTIS: No, no, that's not the case at all.
21 What happened was he alerted to us at that point that yes,
22 there has been no formal discovery requested from us. If you
23 want us to treat this as a Rule 34 request, we will wait 30
24 days and we will serve responses and/or objections. And then 25 he started talking about all the objections he was going to do.

1 So we decided at that point, and certainly we have the right to
2 use any discovery tool, that since our discovery period had
3 been cut down already, the most expedient way to handle this
4 was to use a Rule 45 subpoena. I mean they've used several of 5 them. Why can't we use one?

6 MR. SPRAGUE: Your Honor, I'm not contesting that
7 they have a right to use the Rules of Civil Procedure as they 8 deem fit. But I have to tell you since 1979, in all my 9 practice, this is the first time I've ever had an opposing 10 party go around me and directly subpoena my expert witnesses.
11 The time crunch was of their own making. They didn't serve
12 interrogatories. They didn't serve requests for production in 13 a timely fashion. When they sent the January 29th letter, I
14 responded and said if we can treat your January 29th letter as 15 a request for production and respond in accordance with the 16 rules if you like. He didn't want to do that. He wanted the 17 documents now and he wanted his other list of conditions met
18 now, which included all this stuff from Mr. Eagar.

19 So again, we were trying to deal with the issue on a
20 global issue rather than piecemeal, one at a time, in an effort
21 to save time, money and expense for everyone.

22 MR. JUSTIS: That's not the case either, your Honor.
23 We offered on two separate occasions to go ahead with the dep-
24 ositions of Mr. Racine and Mr. Snow in San Antonio while we 25 worked through a genuine dispute with respect to Mr. Eagar in

1 Boston.

2 THE COURT: Well, I don't get it. We just do things
3 a little more expeditious around here. Rule 26.(a)(2)(B) says:

4 "Except as otherwise stipulated or directed by the
5 Court," --

6 This is the voluntary disclosure with respect to experts, and 7 it says that:

8 "The report shall contain the complete statement of 9 all opinions expressed. . . ."

10 MR. SPRAGUE: Your Honor, we did all --

11 THE COURT: -- ". . . the compensation to be paid,
12 the information considered by the witness, listing of any
13 other cases in which the witness has testified."

14 Why was that 26.(a)(2) disclosure not made?

15 MR. SPRAGUE: It was, your Honor. In full. They're 16 not complaining about that disclosure. This is additional 17 discovery over and above the Rule 26 disclosure.

18 THE COURT: Well, as I read the subpoena request, it
19 asks nothing more than that in Rule 26.(a)(2).

20 MR. SPRAGUE: I respectfully disagree, your Honor. I
21 think it's much broader than that.

22 THE COURT: Where? You tell me where --

23 MR. SPRAGUE: Rule 26.(a) does not mention retainer
24 agreements. It does not mention correspondence. It does not 25 mention anything other than what's in the rule. And we

1 provided all of that information as they --

2 THE COURT: Compensation to be paid.

3 MR. SPRAGUE: We told them, in the Rule 26.(a) report
4 we told them he was going to get paid $150 an hour and $200 per 5 hour for testimony, which is the same information they gave us
6 from their witnesses.

7 MR. JUSTIS: Voluntarily, without objection.

8 MR. SPRAGUE: Well, we gave it to you voluntarily
9 without objection, too, counsel.

10 MR. JUSTIS: After we filed this motion.

11 MR. SPRAGUE: Now that's not true, Judge. It's in 12 the Rule 26 report, and he knows it's in the Rule 26 report.

13 THE COURT: You're local counsel, are you not, Mr.
14 Justis? Where are from you from?

15 MR. JUSTIS: I am admitted here in the Northern 16 District.

17 THE COURT: Okay.

18 MR. JUSTIS: Pat is my local counsel.

19 THE COURT: Okay.

20 MS. WRONA: I'm the mail drop, your Honor.

21 MR. JUSTIS: I actually do most of my work here in 22 this District.

23 THE COURT: Okay. Well, I am going to, in this case,
24 award fees and costs to the plaintiff for their having to bring 25 this motion, and that will be only those costs associated with

1 bringing the motion itself. And that will be part of the 2 ruling, and that will be it.

3 MR. JUSTIS: Thank you, your Honor.

4 THE COURT: And we'll retain jurisdiction over the
5 matter and hold it open till -- We're going to hold this matter
6 open until May 24th, and we'll have a status date on May 24th.
7 Hopefully his deposition will be completed and this matter will
8 be concluded.

9 MR. JUSTIS: Thank you, your Honor.

10 MS. WRONA: Thank you, Judge.

11 MR. SPRAGUE: May 24th, your Honor?

12 THE COURT: Yes. And Mr. Sprague, if everything is 13 complete and his deposition done, if you want to participate by 14 telephone that will be fine with the Court.

15 MR. SPRAGUE: All right, your Honor, thank you.

16 THE COURT: If there's some sort of hang-ups and you
17 want to be here, but you can still participate by telephone.

18 Mr. Justis, where do you come from?

19 MR. JUSTIS: I'm in the Kansas City area also.

20 THE COURT: If you want to -- Well, let's see, can we 21 get two on at the same time?

22 THE CLERK: It's hard.

23 THE COURT: All right.

24 MR. JUSTIS: My local counsel can do that.

25 THE COURT: All right. Okay. You'll draft the

1 order?

2 MR. JUSTIS: Yes, I will.

3 MS. WRONA: We will.

4 THE COURT: Containing these findings and my order
5 and that will conclude these proceedings till May 24th.

6 MR. JUSTIS: Thank you.

7 THE COURT: If everything is done, just drop me a
8 letter and we'll tell Judge Bucklo the whole matter is 9 complete.

10 MR. SPRAGUE: All right, your Honor.

11 THE COURT: Okay, good luck.

12 (Hearing adjourned.)

I, RIKI SCHATELL, certify that the foregoing is a correct transcript from the record of proceedings in the
